

Lincoln MoneyGuard® Solutions

eApplication submission process

As a leader in the market, Lincoln has a long-standing commitment of helping protect client wealth from the risk of long-term care expenses, while improving the overall financial professional and client experiences. To offer you greater control of your Lincoln MoneyGuard Solutions experience – while continuing to reduce overall turnaround times – the Lincoln MoneyGuard® III application Part I will be accessible on the iPipeline iGO® platform or through your Lincoln producer website. This process will provide an added convenience and enable a more streamlined, customized experience.

What you need to know

On February 18, 2020, the Lincoln MoneyGuard III application Part I and point-of-sale forms will be available for electronic submission directly from iGO or through your Lincoln producer website at no cost. (Not currently available in CA or NY.)

The LTC Supplement and application Part II can be completed through a phone interview or on paper, based on client preference.

Electronic policy delivery is available through iPipeline's DocFast – policy and applicable forms are sent for electronic signatures within 24 hours of policy issue. (Not currently available in NY.)

Lincoln MoneyGuard electronic application process workflow

Note: The client may choose to complete the LTC Supplement and application Part II on paper. If this is the preferred method, indicate this on the "Signature Method" page in iGO and submit the completed paper forms to Lincoln upon electronic submission of the application Part I.
